INTERSECTIONALITY SHARING TIME - Come and meet Selenthia, Barbara and 8 year old, Isaiah, and learn how intersectionality has affected their lives creating trauma for Isaiah and his mothers. Racism, disability, and homophobia at its worst. A free-will offering will be taken. Saturday, August 17 from 9:00 to 10:30 am in the fellowship hall at Lovely Lane. Intersectionality is a complex concept that is difficult for people to understand. We tend to talk about topics such as racism, climate justice, homophobia, mental health, poverty, disability, abuse, and sexuality as if they each occur separately, however, when these factors and more are combined they intensify the totality of the impact. Please contact Deb Streff with questions at (319) 721-8864.
